July 2021

We hope that you are enjoying Wimbledon
& that the sun is going to shine again soon!

With best wishes

Gail & Thomas Kelly

Charity Draw

This month we are supporting the 'Barley Flower Tower' appeal to improve our local church—as we also helped make the flowers now decorating it!

Mad Hatter's Tea Party

As we can't go to the one taking place in Royston and as part of Herts Care Providers Association's Good Care Month, we are going to be holding our own very special Mad Hatters's Tea Party for all the resident's to take part in on Wednesday 14 July

Birthday Celebrations

A special afternoon tea was arranged to celebrate our lovely resident's 90th birthday, which she was able to share with her family in the garden. Followed by birthday cake!!

Join us on Weds 7 July at 2.00 pm to become a Dementia Friend

A Dementia Friend is somebody that learns about dementia so they can help their community or a loved one living with dementia. Lee-Ann & Sam have been trained by the Alzheimers Society to deliver these interactive and informative sessions, which last a max of 45 minutes. So, if you would like to learn a bit more about dementia and how you can help and understand someone who is living with dementia a little better, please contact us to book a place and come along to our socially distanced session.

Residents visited by historian and BBC

Following on from our Queen Mary afternoon tea a historian bought lots of items from the ship which he talked about and shared with us all, before pouring tea for Heather from the original 1st class china she would have been served on 85 years ago. The BBC came to film the occasion and featured us on BBC Look East and also the national Breakfast News.

The historian sharing the history of his Queen Mary items with us and the BBC filming it all

We've also had a good time with music indoors, as well as arts and crafts, puzzles and just a nice cuppa.

We have been going for walks out in the village, looking at the church 'flower tower' and even collecting free rhubarb from a stall enroute, as well as having games in the garden

We were very grateful to Enid for being willing to be evacuated, using our special evacuslide, when we did a recent fire drill. It made for a very good and realistic drill for all the staff that were involved on the day. Enid said 'I'm raring to go at the start' and 'mission completed' at the end!!

Meanwhile, we were delighted to have a socially distanced Irene back to put everyone through their paces 'face to face' again in her exercise classes.
