Saying Farewell to the Queen

Due to the death of the Queen we made a number of changes to our planned activities in September.

We watched all the significant events in the days preceding the funeral and we visited the church next door to sign the condolence book, the book was also then bought to Margaret House for residents to sign that couldn't get there.

After watching the funeral, we had a special afternoon tea featuring the Queen's favourite Rich Tea Chocolate Cake, which we made at Baking Club together with marmalade sandwiches.

Resident's Artwork displayed on the National Day of Art in Carehomes

The waterlilies piece that resident's created was on display at an art exhibition, attended by the Mayor on 24 Sept We hope you agree - we have some very talent artists living at Margaret House!!

We paid our respects and said our own farewells to the Queen
