

Wishing you all a very Happy Festive season from us all at Margaret
House
Best wishes Gail & Thomas

Christmas time at Margaret House

We are looking forward to seeing as many of you as possible at our Cocktail Party on Weds 18th December from 6.00pm.

Lea-Ann has now started decorating the home and has a full calendar of festive events planned for residents. Staff will also be taking part, so you will see us all dressed up on 'Elf Day' and then Christmas jumper day later in the month!

Assistance Baths

Do you know anyone living locally who used to enjoy a bath but is no longer able to have one, but might like to again??

If so, please ask them to give Sam or Lea-Ann a call. We have already helped a number of local residents enjoy having a bath with sensory lights & Jacuzzi jets—but would be pleased to welcome anyone else you know of

New for 2024!

After coming to visit us last week, we are delighted that 'Reignite' - a dance troop made up only of members aged 75+, have agreed to come and hold regular dance lessons and sessions with the residents and staff!

Margaret House up for another Award

Gail has been shortlisted as a Finalist for the Women Achieving Greatness in Social Care Awards. This award recognises women in the industry who have gone above and beyond to ensure their service not only meets but exceeds the expectations of their clients, as well as ensuring that staff wellbeing and retention is extremely well managed.

We enjoyed a lively session with Kiddleydivey, including singing, dancing & having a lot of fun with the balloons

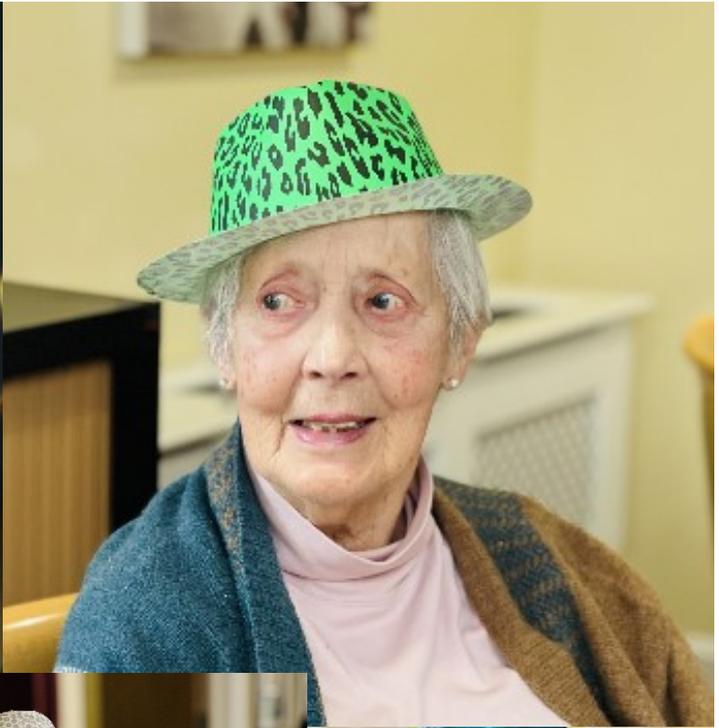

Instead of saying hats off to them—it was definitely a case of hats on.....

We spent time with our reading buddies and they also came for lunch. John went to the school too, helping them with their project on lowering food waste—showing them how to make smoothies from very ripe fruit
